Stems and AI Generation

AUGMENTED REALITY INSTRUMENT TUITION

- Uses a 'real' keyboard in a virtual world
- Also developed for guitar and bass

BEN SELLERS, MEHEM
UPRISING

RESEARCH RESULTS

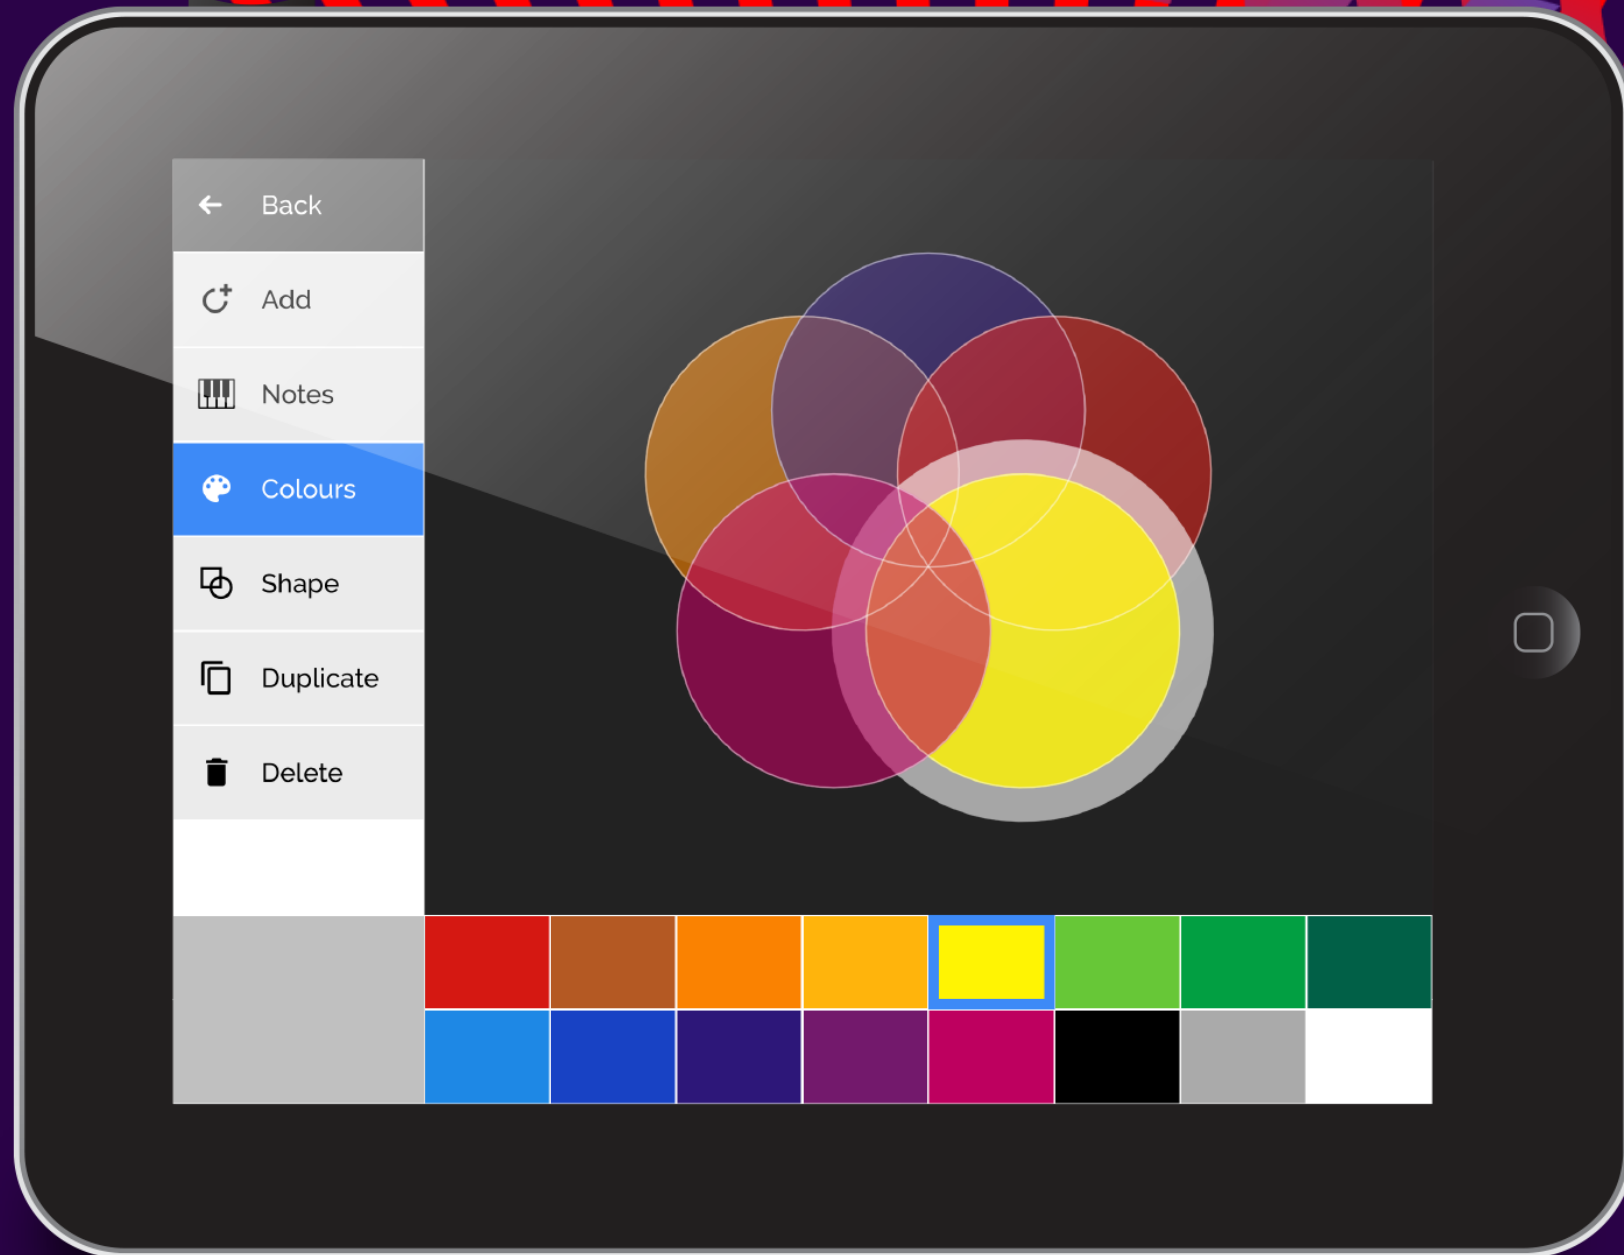

- Overall similar rates of progress...
- But some pupils excelled
- Doesn't replace human-human relationship and guidance...
- But good for motivation and especially for pupils for whom notation may be an insurmountable barrier

SOME THOUGHTS...

- A big part of music is the social aspect, and technology should support not diminish this
- Doesn't allow the complete nuance and control of playing an instrument
- It is here and we need to be part of the discussions to find the opportunities and make it pedagogically sound.
- Future: No latency online interaction, AI hologram teachers
