

What tech is working for you that you would like to share?

Band lab for education!

Google experiment - musical canvas

We already use blob opera that the children quite like using and I have used AI before to support in creating a leavers song.

Try Keydle. It's an aural trainer a bit like wordle

Music lab Garage band

We use microbits, incredibox, purplemash. But we do this once key skills have been taught.

Beatsurfing 2 free app
Loopseque IKasiolator

GarageBand has always been a sure fire way to get students playing guitar easily!

What tech is working for you that you would like to share?

Chrome lab for composition Loopesque Garage band compositions

Loopseque

Soundtrap for Education

Stem separation in studio one

Incredibox

Garage band VST's to showcase instruments you may not have access to Visualiser for modelling

Old cheap Yamaha keyboards and drum machines that have been discarded

What tech is working for you that you would like to share?

There's also Chordle and Heardle!

Check out the new 'Fender Studio' free app for instant recording.

Check out the 'Weaver' by Fieldtone - a very simple random sampler

Showbie

Socrative

GarageBand

We're exploring soundtrap and bandlab at ks3 to build skills for ks4 study.

The music hub can purchase the clarion licences for you and they can loan them out to schools

What tech is working for you that you would like to share?

GarageBand iPad for film/advert compositions at KS3

Synthesia

Bandlab education

FL Studio

Digit CMPSR and artiphon chorda

Garage band

Check out the 'Travel Sax' &
'Travel Clarinet' for silent & digital practice.

'Portable' recording studio

What tech is working for you that you would like to share?

Audacity

Adding some stems into GarageBand to give students a template/head start to creating a cover version/remix of a song.

The KR11 Korg drum pad is cool 😊 (about £100) - and the ODD Ball is FAB !!!

Tonestro.... Play along app for variety of instruments that tracks how good your are